Taylor and I would like to wish you a Happy Happy Thanksgiving Day from Miraculous Love Ministries! We have so much to be thankful for! Wow! Things are going so great here in Redding its amazing! It so beautiful out here all the leaves are changing, and it's usually warm and in the 70's!

If this is your first time receiving this newsletter, that's great! You can find out more about our ministry at www.MiraculousLove.com.

School

School has been a great experience so far. Taylor has learned a lot, and Bethel's School has had so many great speakers come in to speak and impart to the students. I am thankful for the homework process at BSSM. The students are reading the Bible all the way through, and the homework has great questions and assignments that make the students really learn and retain truths from the Word instead of

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is a time for relaxing, and spending time with friends and family – and of course turkey eating. Remember this Thanksgiving how God has provided for you and blessed you in the past. I could go on and on about how much He has blessed us; where would we be without God in our lives? He alone is deserving of all our thanks and praise. He is such a good God! Think of the angels and four living creatures described in Rev. 4. All they do is continually praise him saying "Holy Holy, Holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come." Rev. 4:8. Thinking and reflecting on what God has done in the past can bring us to a place of extravagant worship.

For everyone else, thanks so much for all the feedback with encouraging letters, prayer support, and donations! We have been blessed so much, and are very appreciative of all your blessings. Thanks so much! I realized it has been over two months since our first newsletter went out, and I am sorry we have not sent another one yet. After this one, we intend to begin sending out our newsletter monthly in order to keep everyone

I believe that in a school for 'Supernatural Ministry' a foundation in the Word of God is vital to keep our focus on God and not the signs and wonders. I do not think we should run to the miracles, signs and wonders, and seek supernatural phenomenon. However, many times in God's manifest presence creative miracles happen. I have learned that as we seek after our Heavenly Father, signs and wonders will follow us around.

Taylor is in an outreach program at school that sends people out to local public Jr. High schools to meet with kids after school. I got special permission to go as well, and it was been so much fun meeting these young kids and just hanging out with them. Jr. High can be such a hard time for adolescents, and sense we both have a passion for youth this has been a great opportunity for us.

Outreach

This Thanksgiving keep in mind many people can not afford an extravagant dinner or even a meal at all. It breaks my heart to think that there is hungry and homeless people struggling to find there next meal. I am not saying there is anything wrong with having a big meal with your friend's, Taylor and I are having eight people over, but if you are able, consider finding ways to bless those less fortunate this Thanksgiving. Most local churches will have programs to feed others that you can get involved in. Or you could just go out and give a whole meal or just some extra food to whoever God leads you to. Jesus said referring to feeding and providing for others, "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me" Mat. 25:40. Last year one of my friends in Randy Clarks School in Harrisburg organized about 10 full meals of donated food. A week before thanksgiving, he went to a specific area that had lower income families in Harrisburg and just ask if anyone would like a free Thanksgiving basket of food. He was able to take baskets to all the people that responded and you can imagine how excited Feathers!

Sometimes our thankfulness in the small things can lead to God being gracious toward us in bigger things. Have you ever seen feathers fall under the anointing? I have seen them many times, where a feather just appears out of nowhere, and falls gracefully to the ground, usually while someone is preaching. I'm not sure why God does this, but He's God, and every time it happens, it make me happy! Maybe they are angel feathers, or maybe they just manifested from the glory of God, who knows. Recently, Taylor was witnessing to a skeptical co-worker and talking about the radical nature of God when one just poofed in front of her and landed in her hand! I was so excited to see this supernatural gift God gave to her. A few weeks later I was spending some time with God in the prayer house at Bethel. I was laying down praying, and when I got up again, there was another small white feather laying next

Breakthrough

If you are pressing into Jesus for break-through in a specific area, try thanking God. Ps 100:4 tells us to, "Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name!" Thankfulness is the door to his courts where everything we need is stored! It's easy to thank God in times of plenty, but we are to thank Him all the time. Remember how Jesus fed the 5,000? He took the 5 loaves of bread and 2 fish, and first gave thanks to God for the meal He provided. Sometimes I get upset at splitting a meal with 1 person, imagine 5,000! After giving thanks, Jesus gave the food to His disciples, and it multiplied until everyone was feed and satisfied. When we are asking for something and contending for more, thanking God can release breakthrough. I have seen this so many

they were Thanksgiving Day when he showed up!

Also, when you bring a gift to someone, it usually opens the door for you into their home and their life. Receiving gifts help strangers put their walls down, and opens them up to receive prayer and ministry from you. Taylor and I are going to bring free cookies to people! Who doesn't like cookies? Anything you can do to get people to let you lay your hands on them, and minister the gospel of the kingdom to them is a great plan! As you go out and just love people, encounters with Jesus are bound to happen!

times when people get only partially healed from prayer. As God shows up and partially heals someone, I get them to stop praying for more healing, and began thanking God for what He has just done. As they thank Him many times, that's when God releases more, and they get totally healed! We have the nature of Christ in us, and our thankfulness shouldn't be dependent on God meeting our wants, our thanks should be forever ongoing because of God's unending love toward us.

Well Happy Thanksgiving everyone and God Bless. Love, David & Taylor Causer
